

Italy: Here's a red-hot way you can see Tuscany -- by Ferrari

AUGUST 19, 2015

The Ferrari Experience includes a guided test drive, a day of touring the Tuscan countryside and a chance to drive laps on an international track.

Drive through the wheat fields and vineyards of Tuscany in a classic luxury Italian sports car -- a bright red Ferrari -- on a do-it-yourself tour offered by Hotel Castello di Casole, a restored Italian castle on a country estate in Siena.

The three-night Ferrari Experience includes a guided test drive, a day of touring through the countryside and a chance to drive laps on an international race track. Other activities include a shopping day at the Prada Factory Outlet as well as a visit to the house and private museum of one of the famed Palio of Siena jockeys.

Dates: Available through Nov. 9; must be booked by Nov. 6.

Price: $4,000 per couple, including three nights' accommodations in a suite, daily breakfast, activities and a couple's massage spa treatment.

Info: Castello di Casole, (888) 548-9429